THE WILCOX LUAU WAS GREAT SUCCESS

A pleasant and well-attended luau was given yesterday in Nottley Hall by Princess Theresa Laanui Wilcox and the members of the Royal Dancing Club.

The event was in honor of the birthday of Robert W. Wilcox.

The guests partook of Hawaiian delicacies at three long tables, waited on by a bevy of pretty girls. Early in the afternoon the Hawaiian band was in attendance, and later music was furnished by a quintet club.

Dancing was indulged in all through the afternoon and a lively terpsicho-rean session was held in the evening.

Among the guests were Ella Wheeler Wilcox and husband, who declared that she enjoyed herself hugely and scribed an ode to a baked sweet potato between courses.

The ladies of the club were dressed in light blue and wore malle and lila leis, and a button bearing the photograph of Queen Kapiolani, after whom the club is named. Blue silk badges worn by them bore the words, "Kulia i ka Nuu."

The hall was tastefully decorated with American and Hawaiian flags, and at one end was a portrait of the late Robert N. Wilcox, flanked by portraits of Queens Kapiolani and Liliuokalani.

A large number of well-known people had been invited to the luau, of whom a great many were present.

The Royal Dancing Club, which numbers eighty-seven members, will now take its summer vacation.

RETURNED BY ALAMEDA.

Miss V. McGregor, former for B. J.
Ehlers & Co. returned by the S. S.
Alameda from a two months' absence spent among the wholesale millinery establishments of the mainland.

Miss McGregor brings back many new ideas for her season's work, as well as many cases of pattern hats, high art millinery novelties, etc.

Messrs. Ehlers & Co. will hold their spring opening next Thursday and following days and if last season is any criterion to go by, they will no doubt have a record attendance.

TUESDAY NIGHT THE ORPHEUM SHOW ENDS

As announced in the Advertiser yesterday morning, the engagement of Frank Cooley and his company at the Orpheum closes on Tuesday night next.
The company has made an unusually long stay, having been here for three months, but Manager Ellsford, who handles the show's Coast interests, has booked it for several weeks in the Coast cities and it is therefore necessary that it return as soon as possible.

Tomorrow night is to be presented "A Daughter of Dixie," which was played one night at the Hawaiian Opera House and one night at the Orpheum and which many people pronounced the prettiest play of the season. It is a dramatization of Henry Blossom's novel, "Checkers." Tuesday night "The Scout's Revenge" is to be repeated. This is another of the season's successes, having been played during the first week of the engagement. It is a very strong and exciting melodrama.

Many of the matinee patrons have expressed a desire to see "The Man from Mexico," and Manager Cooley has decided to put in an extra matinee Tuesday afternoon, when this funniest of all farces will be the bill. As there will be no other professional dramatic attraction here for several weeks, packed houses should be the rule at these last performances.

SIGNS OF SPRING.

The Alameda brought to Silva's Tog-gery an assortment of Hart, Schaffner and Marx clothing as a harbinger of spring. Mr. Silva did not expect his goods to arrive until about the first of March and was agreeably surprised when he received his advices on Friday that the goods were on board. The demand for light shades in the celebrated Hart, Schaffner and Marx clothing has been rather large during the past month and as there is none of this season's styles in town Silva is fortunate in being the first to get the goods. The assortment includes all shapes and conditions and the Toggery force will be able to fit anyone, but there are no two suits alike.

Two women chanced to meet on a streetcar in Chicago. "Why, how do you do, Mrs. Thompson!" exclaimed one of them. "I called at your house one day last week, and there was nobody home."
"We've moved, Mrs. Giles," said the other. "Didn't you know that?"
"No. When did you move?" "About two weeks ago. We got tired of living in all the noise and bustle, and we went away out in the suburbs." "What direction?" "Northwest." "And where are you located now?" "It's a new neighborhood, Mrs. Giles, and I can't describe it exactly, but if I had a map of the city here I could show you. We live just about half an inch outside of the city limits."

When Wiberforce lived at Marden Hall, in Surrey, he entertained freely, often having such statesmen as Ryder, Burke, and Pitt as his guests. On one such occasion Pitt and Ryder had a rather heated political discussion that lasted far into the night. The next morning, while awaiting breakfast, the host took Ryder around his garden. The early-rising Pitt had been before them. In a flower bed they detected something which was not a flower. "It proved," said Wiberforce, "to be a portion of Ryder's old hat, which Pitt had planted in the soil near the geraniums."
